Yup, we're playing catchup here on the ReadyRoom and getting all the videos we can find on our host to help provide more download locations (I had to get one of these guys off a Korean host at dial up speeds, painful!). Today, we bring you the likes of Reign of Terror, Reminiscence of sPicy and Team Exigent - Ascension .

On the content note. We are attempting to compile a large gallery of drawn NS artwork. If you have any drawn work that has been NS inspired, be it by hand, digital or paint, please post it on the forums or email it to me (see contact page).
